JUGHEAD NO. 145 JUNE MEMBERSHIP — TWENTY CENTS

FIRST PRIZE — $5.00

REPORTER
CHARLES POE
926 E. Cherry
Springfield, Mo.

Dear Archie,

One sunny day early in November my father and I went hunting, which I dreaded very much because I couldn't shoot a gun very well. My dad knew this but wouldn't show it. We were wading across a stream when some quail shot up into the air. My dad was already shooting at them when I saw a huge jack rabbit hop into the bush. I followed it quietly till I was lost. Finally the rabbit was close enough to shoot at. I thought to myself, "I've got to have that jack rabbit to show my dad that I could shoot a gun." I raised my gun and fired it, when a man came up to me and told me that this was his property and I had to give the rabbit to him. I finally went back to where my dad was. He knew nothing of what had happened. But I didn't feel bad because he didn't hit any quail!

SECOND PRIZE — $3.00

REPORTER
SAUNDRA JONES
322A Trump Mill Road
Baltimore, Md.

Dear Archie,

I live in a neighborhood where there are many cats. One day as I was walking home from church, I saw a white cat. I didn't think very much about it until I went into the house and saw that she was still in my frontyard. It was then that I started wondering about her.

After I had finished eating dinner, I decided to look in the newspaper under the lost and found section. Sure enough there was an ad in the paper that said: "Lost: White, medium-large cat. responds to the name of Sally. Reward."

I thought to myself, "This will be as easy as picking up a stick! All I have to do is go out in my frontyard and get the cat." But when I went outside to get her she was gone. My mother told me that I wouldn't be able to stay outside too long looking for her, because we had to go away that night. My sister and I went out to look for her, but every time we'd get anywhere near her she'd run away. My sister gave up and went home, but I wasn't going to give up that easily. About an hour later, I found that it was getting dark and I hadn't found the cat yet. But strangely enough, on my way home I found her, caught her, and carried her home. I called up the people who put the ad in the newspaper, and they said they'd come over right away. They came and said it was their cat. Before I really knew what was happening the lady gave me a ten dollar bill. I saved the money for our family's summer vacation to Florida.

THIRD PRIZE — $2.00

REPORTER
LESLIE GRANT
312 College Park Drive
Seal Beach, Calif.

Dear Archie,

My rabbit is not a normal rabbit. He thinks he is a human and should be treated like one. I let him have free run of the backyard during the day, and at night time he has a cage to sleep in. Whenever he hears a door being opened he dashes right into the house thinking it was being opened for him. He will run around on the carpet exploring for a while, then he finds a nice corner and lays down thinking he belongs in the house. He will come when he hears his name being called, and if you won't pet him, he'll nudge you with his head till you do. If you want to hold him you'll just have to cradle him like a baby in your arms, or he'll bite you. My rabbit is quite spoiled!

FOURTH PRIZE — $1.00

REPORTER
ROBERTA RAWORTH
408 S. Commerce
Natchez, Miss.

Dear Archie,

I would like to tell you about my cat. My cat's name is Kitty. We call him that because when we call him we say "here kitty, kitty, kitty!" Well, Kitty's favorite pastime is trying to get at my fish. He will climb on my desk, and lick the water out of the fish bowl, hoping that he will get at the fish. But my fish are smart, they stay at the bottom. His other approach is usually even less successful. He will paw at the fish. But poor Kitty hasn't gotten one fish in two whole months!

FIFTH PRIZE — $1.00

REPORTER
JENNIFER HARRIS
1021 Washington
Covington, Ga.

Dear Archie,

This is my second letter to you. I would like to tell you about my trip from Colorado to South Dakota. After all my bags were packed we left in the car to go to the airport. When we got there I quickly kissed my mother and father good-bye, and then I boarded the airplane. Oh, it was so much fun! I didn't even lose my stomach when we left the ground. We were going 300 M.P.H. land speed. After an hour we ate supper, which was delicious. When we were about ready to land I saw a boy fishing, but he looked so small that if we hadn't been landing I would have probably thought he was an ant!

NORMAN ROCKWELL—America's most beloved artist. He is a founder and member of the Guiding Faculty of the Famous Artists School.

"We're looking for people who like to draw"

says NORMAN ROCKWELL

Today hundreds of men and women who never thought they could be artists are working at easels and drawing boards, making pictures and getting well paid for it. They all can thank a group of famous artists who have devoted much of their time and talent to helping others find success in art.

Some of the People the Famous Artists Have Helped

Carl Koch was an 18 year old apprentice in a Chicago art studio when he enrolled. Today he prepares ads for such companies as General Motors and Firestone—has won five gold medals.

Howard Sanden of Minneapolis took the Course while still in high school. He is now a successful artist—last year he and his wife traveled through Europe and the Middle East on important art assignments.

Paul Sullivan enrolled at 14. His Famous Artists training helped him work his way through college.

Stan Bowen, father of three children, was trapped in a dull, low-paying job. By studying with FAS he became a sought-after illustrator, has opened his own studio.

With Famous Artists training Rosemary Roberts was hired by a top department store as an artist—with a big chance to advance.

Oregon housewife Helen Tryk lives 150 miles from the nearest big city. But she does fashion illustration, has her own studio, runs an art workshop, does portraits.

A Plan to Help Others

It started over 18 years ago when a group of America's most successful artists—men like Albert Dorne, Norman Rockwell, Jon Whitcomb, Al Parker and Stevan Dohanos—met in New York City. They knew that all over America there were people who liked to draw who could be turned into good artists. Albert Dorne asked, "Why can't we give these people the training they need—including all the trade secrets and know-how we've learned over the years?"

He suggested a new kind of art school—a home study art school—that would give talented people the best professional art training, no matter where they live.

The famous artists agreed. Taking time from their busy careers, they created a remarkable series of art lessons covering every aspect of drawing and painting. They illustrated their lessons with over 5,000 "here's-how" illustrations. The lessons start from scratch and cover every skill a top artist needs. Finally, they developed a wonderful way to give each student personal correction and advice all through his training.

The famous artists with the School are not surprised at the success of their students. The opportunities open to successful artists today are enormous. The School continually gets calls from all over the country asking for practical well-trained students—not geniuses—who can step into full-time or part-time art jobs. And practical, thorough training is what the School offers.

Famous Artists Talent Test

To find others with art talent worth developing, the Famous Artists created a 12-page talent test. Thousands paid to take this test, but now the School offers and grades it free. Men and women who do well on the test—or offer other evidence of art talent—may enroll in the School. But there's no obligation. Simply mail the coupon below.
